

Sl. No.	Item	Disclosure	Description
1.1	Particulars of its organisation, functions and duties [Section 4(1)(b)(i)]	1. Name and address of the Organization	Institute for Steel Development and Growth, "Ispat Pragati Bhawan", 793 Anandapur, Kolkata - 700107
		2. Head of the organization	Name: P K Mishra Designation: Director General
		3. Vision, Mission and Key objectives	Mission- To work with unison for all the stakeholders in the steel industry so as to evolve ways and means for more efficient usage of steel and provide optimum value to the customer Key Objective: To increase consumption of steel in India, particularly in the Construction sector
		4. Function and duties	The Institute primarily works towards taking steps to augment consumption of Steel in the Country, particularly in construction sector. Undertaking relevant studies and making reports, making steel-based designs; participating in making relevant codes of BIS and IRC, and imparting training on Steel usage are some of the major functions of the Institute.
		5. Organization Chart	Director General (DG) looks after the daily affairs of the Institute. All officers of the institute report to DG Executive Council (EC) is the Top Management Body and they provide guidance and direction INSDAG reports to the President of the Executive Council Working Group, nominated by the EC, looks into the issues relating to Administration, Finance, Personnel and other important areas of the Institute. Project Review Committee (PRC) approves and monitors projects that the Institute takes up.
		6. Any other details- the genesis, inception, formation of the department and the HoDs from time to time as well as the committees/ Commissions constituted from time to time have been dealt	The Institute is registered as a "Society" under Societies Registrations Act of West Bengal 1961. Our founding members are major steel companies viz. SAIL, TATA STEEL, JSW STEEL, RINL, AM/NS. The Institute gets grants from Ministry of Steel, GOI, every year